

Curriculum Impact

At St Paul's Church of England Primary School, we will judge our curriculum to have had the desired impact if:

- children read well, enjoy learning and remember much of what has been taught
- children show curiosity and talk confidently about what they know
- children's compassionate actions show high levels of spiritual, moral, social and cultural education
- children's work is of high quality showing, excellent progress from starting points
- children have a sound knowledge of fundamental British values
- assessments show excellent progress and high attainment
- children move on to secondary school with confidence and resilience.
